

The Clarington Physician Recruitment (CPR) Committee is welcoming the arrival of a new doctor in the community.

Dr. Shiv Sivapalan, a family medicine doctor, opened his practice on January 12, 2012 in Suite 201, East Wing, of the Bowmanville Professional Building at 222 King St. East, Bowmanville. He is currently taking patients; to reach the office contact (905) 440-3584.

With support of partners from the Municipality, Clarington's existing medical community and representatives from the business community, the CPR Committee (a subcommittee of the Clarington Board of Trade) has developed a strong strategic direction in attracting family doctors. The CPR Committee has successfully recruited 25% of the current working doctors in Clarington since its inception in 2005. According to the municipality, "attracting and retaining physicians to Clarington is an essential component to ensuring a healthy community for the residents of the Municipality."

New doctor opens office in Clarington

Saturday, 28 January 2012 21:45 - Last Updated Saturday, 28 January 2012 23:55

For more information on the CPR Committee, or to find Clarington doctors who are currently taking patients visit www.cbot.ca/physician_recruitment .

{loadposition content_adsense}