. Early bird tickets sold out when the first headliner, Jason Aldean, was announced and the announcement of these additional artists should keep fans happy as Rascal Flatts, Miranda Lambert and The Band Perry were among fans top ten picks for appearing at Boots and Hearts based on last year's exit polls, along with Aldean, and Dean Brody who was the #1 most desired Canadian artist chosen to perform at the festival.

"Being able to deliver as many of the top country artists that our fans want to see as possible is always our goal," said Shannon McNevean, Executive Director, Partner, Republic Live. "We want Boots & Hearts to be a trusted source for providing not only amazing talent but an overall outstanding event and festival experience. We were humbled to see that after one year so many of our fans put their faith in us and bought early bird tickets based on their previous experience when only one artist was released. We expect tickets to keep moving at an incredible rate now that we have country superstars Rascal Flatts, who just got their star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, reigning 3 time CMA female vocalist of the year Miranda Lambert and one of the hottest breakout groups, The Band Perry, and CCMA Album of the Year winner Dean Brody confirmed. There are lots more artists to be announced, but we're already stoked to be able to bring so many of country music's heaviest hitters to Bowmanville for another epic weekend!"
