

The Ontario-wide rotating elementary teachers strike will be hitting Clarington this Friday.

The Elementary Teachers Federation of Ontario has been holding one day strikes at various school boards throughout the province, and on Friday it will be the Kawartha Pine Ridge District Board's turn.

The Kawartha Pine Ridge District School Board is letting parents know that elementary schools will be closed to students on Friday, December 14, 2012. Busing for elementary students will be cancelled for the day.

The board notes that all secondary schools will be open, with normal busing transportation provided.

{loadposition content_adsense}

Clarington to be hit by rotating teacher strike Friday

Thursday, 13 December 2012 01:45 - Last Updated Thursday, 13 December 2012 02:50
