

Still considering your options in the upcoming Federal elections? Here is a quick list of candidates (as well as links to their websites for more information) and a basic snapshot of the riding's past voting history. Remember, voting is your basic democratic right; exercise it!

Clarington is part of the Durham riding, which also includes Uxbridge and Scugog.

The 2011 Federal election is being held on Monday, May 2nd.

Durham riding candidates in the 2011 Election

Bev Oda (Conservative Party of Canada, and the riding's current Member of Parliament).

Website: www.bevoda.ca

Grant Humes (Liberal Party of Canada)

Website: granthumes.liberal.ca/

Stephen Leahy (Green Party of Canada)

Website: <http://durhamgreens.ca/stephenleahy>

Tammy Schoep (New Democratic Party)

Website: <http://tammyschoep.ca/>

Andrew Moriarity (Christian Heritage Party of Canada)

Facebook page: <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Andrew-Moriarity-CHP-candidate-for-Durham/122918874449415>

Blaize Barnicoat (Libertarian Party of Canada)

Party website: <http://www.libertarian.ca/>

Past Results (General Election of October 14, 2008)

Clarington Federal Election Snapshot

Saturday, 30 April 2011 15:32 - Last Updated Saturday, 30 April 2011 15:44

Bev Oda - Conservative Party of Canada - 28,551 votes (54.1 %)
Bryan Ransom - Liberal Party of Canada - 12,167 votes (23.0 %)
Stephen Leahy - Green Party of Canada - 6,041 votes (11.4 %)
Andrew McKeever - New Democratic Party - 5,485 votes (10.4 %)
Henry Zekveld - Christian Heritage Party of Canada - 577 votes (1.1 %)

For further information, including where to vote, visit the Elections Canada website at <http://www.elections.ca>